“On the Way” an art installation and vigil, uses road signs to parallel our current immigration injustices with Mary, Joseph, and Jesus’s search for refuge in a foreign land. Created by Jonathan Barachowitz in the tradition of Christmas nativity scenes, its goal is to move us out of our comfort zones and into deeper reflection and action. Four neighboring UU churches joined to share this special work, which has been traveling from church to church throughout the season of Advent. It has been exhibited for a week each at First Parish in Lexington, Lincoln, and Concord, and is now completing its journey at First Parish in Bedford.
