on the Bedford Common

10:00 AM – 3:00 PM

The Annual Plant and Craft Fair—a tradition for 71 years come next May (Crafts were added a decade-or-so ago)—is coming back with its wide variety of heritage perennials dug from Bedford gardens, herb & vegetable seedlings, as well as stock from local nurseries. This year the Common will be under construction, so all Plants will be in the back of the church and crafters inside. More information will be coming! We are continuing this tradition with craft and local food vendors, a children's activity table, our famous baked goods table—and music!
